The Daily Seuss

A Dye-lightful Day

After an abbreviated night, kampers and staff enjoyed an extra hour of sleep. A quick polar bear swim led into a morning of sessions. While the kampers enjoyed an hour of all kamp quiet time, the counselors were busy scurrying about kamp setting up a counselor hunt. Staying in cabin groups, the once white clad kampers acquired color upon color as they found counselors who threw dye on them. An afternoon of swimming gave way to a fish fry, skit night, and campfires.

Run Away Watermelons

When the cooks' backs were turned, several watermelons rolled out of the refrigerator. It took the better part of the afternoon but the kampers were able to track them down.

Right Smurf for the Job

Since they're already dyed the part, KACE kamp counselors have been hired as extras for the new movie, "Zero Smurf Thirty."
