The Daily Seuss

Things Invade Wahpeton

SeussTastic fun was had by all in an epic trip to Wahpeton. Following yummy waffles and cabin pictures, three busses whisked kampers and staff off to the zoo where tigers, otters, peacocks, kangaroos, and an orangutan waited patiently for our arrival. After sweating it out at the zoo we shivered our way through The Lorax. The highlight though was the food: pizza, soda, and dilly bars. An impromptu sunset beach party helped everyone get their silly's out after a long bus ride.
