The sun came out today; well in the afternoon for a bit anyway. Another cloudy day didn't hold our campers back. Sessions, finishing art projects, and one final swim is how they spent their day. The girls retreated to their cabins and transformed into beautiful princesses for the royal ball. The ball was filled with fist pumping and choreographed dances. We all lingered at the final campfire as the friendship sticks smoldered.

Letter to the Editor:

Can someone please get the Cabin 6 girls to stop their hand clapping games? I find myself singing "Alouette" all day long!

Editor "My Bads"

It was "Hurdle's" Birthday on Monday! Shaunn won the Disney relay races.

Letter from the Editor:

Thanks for another great summer. We loved reporting about you and the crazy goings-on of our Kamp KACE community. See you next year.
