What a way to start the week! With swim tests completed, it was off to a celebration of life as survivors released doves. Dinner, free time, and our first sessions kept campers busy before the epic counselor hunt began. The Lions Club kept the fun going as they served ice cream in the dining hall with ALL the fixings. The night continued with a rousing campfire and surprise visit from Peter Pan, Tinkerbell, and Robinhood.

Here's My Card The mutants against cancer everywhere rejoice in the healing of another mutant due to the healing tornado generated by united Kamp KACE camper voices.

Soccer Ball Lives to Play Another Day A soccer ball was headed for certain demise as it hurtled toward marshy runoff, when an orange fence threw itself in harms way to save the day and a pair shoes.

Go Board the Bus... Go Board the Bus...

After pictures, campers will don their swim attire, matching shirts, and mickey ears to enjoy a day of picnics, swimming, and friendship.
