

Rolling Stone

EXCLUSIVE REPORTING OF THE ROCK STAR LIFESTYLE OF KAMP KACE

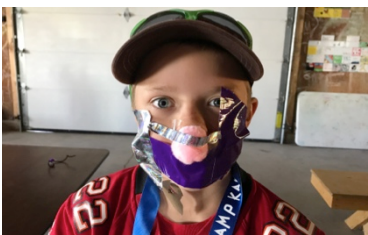

Livestream the Stars

Dancers made the most of the odd set list and never dropped a dilly bar in the process #dillydance #DQ #linedanceanywhere

Be sure to ask @Adam to see his new ink. No for real, everyone ask him. #floozyink

Late for breakfast, @CabinD did the pledge of allegiance by themselves #bonuspledge

The newbies in @cabinD didn't quite understand the friendship stick instructions #rookies #onewaytomakethemquiet

Kamp staff find unique way to leverage all of John's hot air.

I like the new girls counselor @danicaUofM. She's totally like a female version of Kevin.

ROCKSTARS AND DIVAS ROCK N ROLL IS HERE

After a wonderful nights rest, kampers awoke to 50 Degree temperatures – perfect for polar bear! After our first breakfast, kampers shuffled off to the first of many activities, highlighted by the ropes course, early morning shark pulls, and horse rides. Before lunch the survivors and siblings released doves to symbolize the love and acceptance for all at Kamp KACE. As well as the dove's being released, another hosta was added to our memorial garden the celebrate a year of life with no kampers lost. After lunch and a quick rest, kampers brought out their pearly whites for our kamp picture – cheese! After pictures, camper and staff took a quick bus ride to Hawley, MN for an amazing afternoon of inflatable games and pizza picnic. Before a showing of Sing, the kampers got an exclusive viewing of Kamp KACE's the voice complete with all the star power and mixture of good and bad, very bad singing. #thanksluke

“I prefer to call my friends gangsters, because it's rap day.” – Cabin 6

I've Got High Ropes

The theme around the high ropes course is “let me upgrade ya” with 4 new skills added from last year. Nothing against the zip line, but your cooler younger brother, the giant swing, just showed up and stole all your friends. Cabin 4 worked together to launch Eric on the inaugural ride. While Eric was strapped in his harness, the rest of the cabin heaved-hoed him to the top. On the count of 3 he pulled the rip-cord and plunged face first to the earth.

On Mondays We Wear Pink

Our apologies to the nice family playing and the curious neighbors peaking out their windows for our pepto-bismol colored Kamp taking over your park. The towing inflatable games left a sea of skin burns on some kampers, but mostly staff acting well below their age. The award for best injury went to kamper Brooks, from cabin B and counselor Caleb. #teamnap #weworkhard #itSPELLSKampKACE

The debate continues... who wrote 'Every Rose Has Its Thorn': Miley Cyrus or Poison