BREAKING NEWS

A small cell of torrential downpour descended on the campgrounds. A quick pivot moved the outdoor movie to the basement of the mansion, but it was a little too lake for the inflatable games. A flooded meadow made for tough going. #stucktruck

Rain and Cold... Go Take a Hike!

Wet from a rainy night, Cabins 7 & D went straight into the polar bear swim to warm up. Breakfast was followed by songs in the dining hall and our first day of sessions. The grounds were amiss of organized chaos as kampers ran between activities like high ropes, archery, and making bird houses. The morning session into lunch. In the afternoon, a tearful memorial reminded us all why we are all here.

The all camp photo set 123 camo-clad kampers against a foliage tapestry, making them almost invisible to the naked eye. Free time was an opportunity to kids to try something of their choice or take a needed rest time. There were 2 more sessions in the afternoon before the meadow was transformed into a rubberized monster of bounceyness and hot air. Kids raced and jumped for hours before the special screening of Harry and Henderson's followed by multiple of "counselor <insert male counselor name> you look like Harry from that movie. Funny kid. Real funny.

Cabin 6 Weather Report

Reporting is Hannah Buee from cabin 6, your Kamp KACE "meteorologist." After a quick survey, it seems like cabin 6's day was nothing but clouds and constant shivering. However, they were grateful for the little bit of sunshine and of course the little bit of love in the air. Cabin 6 says to expect a very warm, 75+ degrees, and sunny Tuesday. In addition to loads of sunshine they expect Tuesday to be filled with multiple love connections. [This report was not sanctioned by the nation weather service no anticipated the downpour]

Ga-Ga Ball Banned at Kamp!

By Michael (Cabin 5) While you guys were in session, Dr. K went to all the cabins and was shocked by how messy they were. One Cabin was very clean, and he wrote a very nice note. He said on the note "cabin 5 I am very proud of your clean cabin. Since you are the only cabin that is clean you are also the only cabin allowed to play ga-ga ball." Kamp Directory Kim agreed. #gaganogo

Fishing Trip

By Layton (Cabin 4)

One day my dad, my brother, and me were on the way to Alaska for a fishing trip. The next day we went out and fished for 13 hours and didn't catch anything. The next day we went out and fished for 15 hours and didn't catch anything. So we thought it was something with our bait so we bought all new bait. Then the next day we fished for 17 hours and not a single bit. Then we just slept for a very long time. Then the last day we were there we only fished for 3 hours but we caught 20 lake trout. The biggest one my dad caught was a 19 inch one my brother caught a 21 in and I caught a 27 in lake trout. Then we went home and ate lots of fish.

The Biggest Fish

By Tyson, Preston, and Kajj (Cabin 4)

Last year Preston caught a twenty-four-inch largemouth bass. On the front of a pontoon and then he caught a blue whale and after then he kept it as a pet, and he named it Peate.

Yesterday

By Tyson, Preston, and Kajj (Cabin 4)

Bigfoot was at camp he was sneaking around scaring people like Bob, Justin, Caleb, JJ. [They all screamed like girls and cried.] He also scared the kids at camp.

Night of the Weeping Woman

By Gideon (Cabin 4)

One time I was sleeping in peace until Jamik (my brother) threw a half-ripe tomato in my room which hit min the face. I said who threw that tomato but then Jamik and Adam (my dad) started laughing and they said they threw the tomato. So, they went up to my room and asked me if I wanted to search for a La Larona. I didn't want to be called a "baby" so I said okay, got clothes and shoes on, grabbed my flashlight, and me Adam, Jamik busted out the front door. We got in dad's truck (not really a truck) and drove to the river while listening to slipknot music. We got to the river right in the middle of unsainted. We looked around the river, then we started hearing scary sounds and started to get out of the there and that's when we saw her! We ran even faster, dodging broken bottles and torn aluminum cans. We got back to the vehicle. We drove away and we were lucky to be alive. The End.

Our First Kamp KACE Experiences

By Christopher and Garrett (Cabin 5)

Chris: When I first came to this camp, I wasn't expecting much. I was very shy to everyone. But the boys in the cabin made me less shy. They were very welcoming. Overall, I love this camp, but NOT the songs. [thankyouforyourhonesty]

Garrett: I was nervous, kind of shy, then I had to take the swim test. It turns out the swim test was actually fun. Then I met a lot of other people, that make me feel welcome.

Cole (1st Year CIT): My first camp experience is coming into the mansion and helping get organized. I felt very welcomed. As I continue to meet more people, I feel more a part of the family. You are all here to have fun. You guys are awesome. I am really looking forward to going on the Orca.

Paddle Boarding Wars

By Mireya, Regean, and Nikowa (Cabin 6)

Braydon, Caden, Mireya, Reagan, Nikowa decided to spend their open rec on paddle boards. We have to buddy up, so we have one set of three and a pair of two. Nikowa fell right away. Regean fell off because of Braydon. Mireya and Caden were both attacking each other on the paddleboards. We can see great friendships forming between the paddle boarding war members because this is how campers should be: good friends = happy campers.

Polar Bear Swimming

By Ellen (Cabin 6)

Let me paint you a picture, you are a survivor of the first day of camp. The next morning you find yourself awake early. Some of your cabin mates are already awake. You ask them what they are doing. They briefly tell you that they are going to polar bear swim. You decide to join. After getting dressed, you and your group of four go down to the beach. The shrieks of children are crisp in the morning air. And they from the cold or from fun? Jumping into the ice-cold water or walking deeper and plunging your head under, what would be better? You decide to jump in. The water splashes over your head. It's freezing. You jump up with a mighty shriek. The quest for the polar bear swimming shirt continues! Would you like you join?

Dad Jokes

By Jordyn (Cabin 6)

I used to hate facial hair... but then it grew on me.

Two peanuts were walking down the street... one was a salted.

You can run through a camp ground... you can only "ran" because it's past tents.

What do bears call campers in sleeping bag? Soft Tacos.

Why did the fish blush? Because it saw the lakes bottom.

Camping Tips

By Camryn (Cabin 6)

- When you go kayaking, don't be the only one that tips over.
- Wear sunscreen.
- "Don't pull a Regean" -Regean
- "Stay away from me." -Nikowa
- "I learned how to draw Mickey Mouse on Google." -Regean
