Fish Tales and Fish Scales Catching Fish by the Pail

There is something fishy going on around here. That can only mean one thing...Fishing Day! After a sunshine filled morning of polar bear swim, sessions, and lunch the excitement was palatable as the boats from the Lions and FM Walleyes could be seen on the horizon. With rods, bait, and snacks in hand, the kampers climbed aboard their boats in hopes of snagging the catch of the day. After quality time on the lake with friends, the kampers returned for open swim and free time in the meadow. Sessions followed by dinner is the usual way to spend a Kamp evening. Later, the kampers were surprised to find the meadow filled with foam when they emerged from a talk about hunting. The kampers ran-a-muck through the foam with their cabinmates and donned Santa Beards to match the giant smiles on their faces. The kampers cleaned up to then watch the sunset from the comfort of the private campfires.

“Wow! Even the soap here smells like Dilly Bars!”

Fred the Magical Duck

The boys in cabin A were visited by a magical duck on the first day of Kamp and have since adopted him for protection. He uses his magical powers, like standing on one foot and spinning in a circle, to fend off unwanted guests. When asked Chase explained that Fred is simple “the best duck.” If you want to see Fred visit cabin A, but don't get too close or you might experience some of his other magical powers. #duckmagic #mightyducks

The Catch of the Day

By Shaun and Brent

While Shaun was reeling in the big ones, there was a monster among him. This giant beast took a massive bite on his hook. He had a huge struggle to get it in, but then it was over. Shaun pulled it out of the water, picked it up with his bare hand and took a picture with the huge monster... a 2 in perch.

Another Eventful Day at Kamp KACE!

By Caleb (Cabin D)

Tuesday was another day that no one will forget. The day started off as usual: campers waking up at crazy early times to jump in a lake. After we fished out all of the frozen campers and convinced them to eat, it was time to get started with the festivities. The biggest event of the day was the fishing trip. It was organized by the Lions and FM Walleyes. All of the campers came together and caught more fish than we can count! Then the fish were cleaned and will be fried by the cooks. (Thanks!)
