Water Activities To the Max

Kamp KACE saw not one cloud in the sky, which can only mean one thing... all waterfront activities are in full force! From sand castle building to riding on the shark, there's something for everyone here at Kamp. The fourth day at Kamp Kace had all kampers revving their engines at full power, engaging in all sorts of adventurous activities as the wonderful week reached its midpoint. Fun-filled games of water volleyball and basketball were played by many. Fishing was also a hit among Kampers; cabin C reports that they caught 90 total! All in all, the wonderful weather allowed for plenty of time in Lake Cormorant, and the Kampers are fully hitting their stride as we continue this great week at Kamp KACE.

"I have a rash because I was spiking the ball on you in water volleyball" -A very humble Marie from Cabin 1

Why We Kamp

When asking first-time kamper Josilyn how she feels about Kamp KACE, she replied, "This is the first place where I feel normal. I don't feel alone because I see other people like me."

Cinema Under The stars

Kampers were treated to a twilight showing of the movie "Cars." Everyone enjoyed popcorn and snacks as Lightning McQueen raced away on the big screen to all the Kampers delight.

Taylor (Cabin 2): Remy I'm coming to see ya!"
Counselor:"Who is Remy?"
Taylor: "Our dog we put down"

Who Is the Sock Bandit?

Since the first sock theft, the sock bandit has been the talk of the town. Hudson from cabin A has narrowed down the list of suspects to the following:

- CIT Lisa
- Luke the camera guy
- Dr. Chihak
- Counselor Steven

Cabin 2 kamper Jazlyn states that she has been able to avoid falling victim to the sock thief. Her strategy, you ask? "I make sure my socks are extra smelly so they don't get stolen," she says. While that seems to be an effective strategy, let's hope her bunkmates in cabin 2 don't pass out from the stench.

Stock Car Races Hit KACE

Kampers have been working in the pit (aka art barn) all week to prepare their cars for the big stock car race. Preliminary heats took place on Monday and Tuesday, and on Wednesday the final showdown took place on an outdoor track.

After much stipulation over whether certain cars were street legal, judges made a final call to allow all contestants compete.

Winners in the girls category were: first place Kynlee (shown: below, left) and Jazlyn. Winners in the boys category were: first place Dylan (shown: below, right) and second place Logan.

Gordon Finds Disguise

Due to the diligence of the citizens of Kamp KACE, many phone calls made to the Jeff Gordon hotline helped local authorities capture the menace. The victory was short lived, however, as Gordon escaped his jail cell in the mansion. He was last seen disguised in old lady pajamas.
